

NORTH DAKOTA SHELTER TYPES

Minimum Standards	Type I	Type II	Type III	Type IV
Operational Period	Up to four weeks	Up to four weeks	Up to 72 hours	Up to 24 hours
Facility
Capacity	Based on required space	Based on required space	Up to 70 people	Minimum 20 people
Bathrooms	1 toilet and sink per 20 people	1 toilet and sink per 20 people	1 toilet and sink per 20 people	1 toilet and sink per 20 people
Showers	1 shower per 40 people	1 shower per 40 people	None required	None required
Required Space	40 to 60 square feet per person	40 to 60 square feet per person	40 to 60 square feet per person	40 to 60 square feet per person
Communications	Five phone lines and an alternate system	Three phone lines	Two phone lines	One phone line
Sleeping Accommodations	Open common area; onsite or pre-existing memorandums of understanding to obtain cots, mats, etc.	Open common area; on-site or pre-existing memorandums of understanding to obtain cots, mats, etc.	Open common area	Open common area
Ability to Separate People/Services	Required	Required	Not required	Not required
Backup Power	Backup power for essential service and to sustain life safety and medical care	Required to have backup power for essential services	Capability to provide backup power	Not required
Climate Control	Ability to heat and cool	Ability to heat and cool	Ability to heat	Ability to heat
Meal Preparation	Full-service kitchen with commercial sanitation meeting FDA food code requirement	Full-service kitchen with commercial sanitation meeting Food and Drug Administration (FDA) food code requirements	Refrigeration capability required; full kitchen service not required. Meals predominately catered/boxed meals, meals-ready-to-eat (MREs), heater meals	No kitchen required; meals may include catered/boxed meals, meals-ready-to-eat (MREs), heater meals
Emergency Response Services	Readily accessible to ambulance, fire, and law enforcement	Readily accessible to ambulance, fire, and law enforcement	Readily accessible to ambulance, fire, law enforcement	Readily accessible to ambulance, fire, law enforcement
Animals	Service animals only	Service animals only	Service animals only	Service animals only

Minimum Standards	Type I	Type II	Type III	Type IV
Staffing
Medical Support	On-site disaster physical and behavioral health services.; accommodates people who are not ill enough to require hospitalization and have unstable, chronic, terminal, or contagious conditions requiring medical support, intervention or treatment	On-site disaster physical and behavioral health services	On-site medical support not required; basic first aid recommended	On-site medical support not required
Functional Needs	Accommodations are made through on-site staff or other identified resources.	Accommodations are made through on-site staff or other identified resources.	Accommodations are made through on-site staff or other identified resources.	Accommodations are made through on-site staff or other identified resources.
Shelter Management	On-site 24/7 shelter management team required including licensed healthcare professionals	On-site 24/7 shelter management team required	On-site 24-hour shelter management team required	Basic communications and registration
Shelter Security	Security personnel 24/7 with controlled access to the site and the facility	Security personnel as needed with controlled access to the site and the facility	Security personnel as needed with controlled access to the site and the facility	Local law enforcement as needed
Pet Friendly (PF)
Allows pets in kennels or cages to be placed in a room/area separate from shelter occupants.	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No
ADA (A)	Fully accessible under the ADA.	Entrance, common areas and restrooms are ADA accessible, or accessibility is readily achievable through reasonable accommodation or modification.	Entrance, common areas and restrooms are ADA accessible, or accessibility is readily achievable through reasonable accommodation or modification.	Entrance, common areas and restrooms are ADA accessible, or accessibility is readily achievable through reasonable accommodation or modification.